ISO 21416:2019 (E)

Recreational diving services — Requirements and guidance on environmentally sustainable practices in recreational diving

Contents

		Foreword
		Introduction
1		Scope
2		Normative references
3		Terms and definitions
4		Conduct of diving activities
5		Operation of dive boats
6		Interaction with aquatic life
	6.1 6.2	Removal of aquatic life Feeding aquatic life
7		Conservation and pollution control
8		Operation of shore-based facilities
9		Conservation of underwater heritage sites
10		Aquatic parks, reserves and marine protected areas
Annex	κA	(informative) Guidance on sustainable practices
	A.1. A.1. A.1. A.1. A.1. A.1. A.1. A.1.	Awareness of body and equipment placement when diving Maintaining skills through ongoing training Interactions affect aquatic life Understanding and respecting underwater life Divers and ecotourism Respecting underwater cultural heritage Reporting environmental disturbance or destruction Role model for others when interacting with the environment Involvement in local environmental activities Guidance for other stakeholders Value of diving tourism
	A.4	Man-made dive sites

Page count: 8