ISO/TS 55010:2019 (E)

Asset management — Guidance on the alignment of financial and non-financial functions in asset management

Contents

Foreword

Introduction

1 Scope

2 Normative references

3 Terms and definitions

4 Why alignment between financial and non-financial functions is important

4.1 General
4.2 Benefits of alignment

5 Enablers for alignment

5.1 General
5.2 Processes, leadership and governance
5.2.1 Processes
5.2.2 Leadership
5.2.3 Governance
5.3 Policy, strategy, data and information
5.3.1 Asset management policy support
5.3.2 Strategic asset management plan support
5.3.3 Data and information
5.4 Non-financial functions in asset management
5.5 Terminology for financial and non-financial alignment

6 How to achieve system alignment

6.1 General
6.2 Information systems
6.3 Data management

7 How to achieve asset-register-related alignment

7.1 General
7.2 Financial asset registers
7.3 Non-financial asset registers
7.4 Asset register alignment

8 Financial planning for asset management

8.1 General
8.2 Capital investment planning
8.3 Long-term financial planning
8.4 Budgeting

9 Performance management

9.1 General
9.2 Performance measurement
9.3 Performance reporting
9.4 Financial reporting in asset management

Annex A (informative) Guidance on capital investment planning

Annex B (informative) Guidance on long-term financial planning

B.1 General
B.2 Long-term financial planning process steps
B.2.1 General
B.2.2 Mobilization phase
B.2.3 Decision phase
B.2.4 Execution phase

Annex C (informative) External financial reporting standards and principles

C.1 Examples of financial reporting
C.2 External financial reporting principles for assets

Annex D (informative) Financial accounting functions for financial reporting

D.1 General
D.2 Financial asset register
D.3 Valuation/revaluation
D.4 Valuation techniques
D.5 Depreciation
D.6 Impairment
D.7 Useful life/remaining useful life
D.8 Residual value

Annex E (informative) Non-financial functions in asset management

E.1 General
E.2 Concept phase (defining the requirements)
E.3 Planning and design
E.4 Asset creation (construction/acquisition)
E.5 Operation and maintenance
E.5.1 General
E.5.2 Operation
E.5.3 Maintenance
E.6 Asset monitoring
E.7 Rehabilitation and refurbishment
E.8 Disposal

Annex F (informative) Implementation example

F.1 General
F.2 Problem statement
F.3 Asset management business case
F.4 Key points from the organization's policy for asset management
F.4.1 Approach to alignment
F.4.2 Internal controls
F.4.3 Focus
F.4.4 Leadership to drive alignment
F.4.5 Senior Executive (Asset Management) responsibilities
F.4.6 Risk and Capital Committee

Annex G (informative) Cost input to pricing for product or service

Page count: 40