ISO/TS 22330:2018-06 (E)

Security and resilience - Business continuity management systems - Guidelines for people aspects of business continuity

Contents

Page

Foreword v

Introduction vi

1 Scope 1

2 Normative references 1

3 Termsanddefinitions 1

4 People aspects overview 2
4.1 General 2
4.2 The need for a people aspects approach 3
4.3 Structure 4

5 Precursors 4
5.1 General 4
5.2 Duty of care 5
5.3 Attributes of the organization 6
5.4 Team and individual competencies 7

6 Preparing to respond 7
6.1 General 7
6.2 Business impact analysis 7
6.3 Managing people risks in business continuity 8
6.4 Including people aspects in business continuity management 8
6.5 Knowledge, skills and abilities 8
6.5.1 General 8
6.5.2 Education 8
6.5.3 Learning and development 9
6.5.4 Experience 9
6.6 Awareness across an organization 9

7 Delivering the response 10
7.1 General 10
7.2 Respond 11
7.2.1 General 11
7.2.2 Responding to early warning 11
7.2.3 Immediate actions to protect and secure people 11
7.2.4 Incident response organization 15
7.3 Recover 17
7.3.1 General 17
7.3.2 Mobilizing the workforce in adverse conditions 17
7.3.3 Using alternative work sites 18
7.3.4 Working from home 18
7.3.5 People management issues 19
7.4 Restore 20
7.4.1 General 20
7.4.2 Actions for sustainable restoration of operations 21
7.5 People support strategies 21
7.5.1 Managing the needs of families and friends 21

7.5.2 Physical and psychological well-being 22
7.6 Communications 23
7.6.1 General 23
7.6.2 Importance of internal communication 24
7.6.3 Communication systems and pathways 25
7.6.4 External communications 26
7.6.5 Social media 27
7.7 Managing the impact of travel issues 27
7.7.1 General 27

7.7.2 Travel issues 28
7.7.3 Managing a travel incident 28

8 Review and continuous improvement 29
8.1 General 29
8.2 Continuous improvement through exercising 29
8.3 Feedback from the workforce or external agencies 29
8.4 Record-keeping 30
8.5 Risk review 30

Annex A (informative) Psychological response management 31

Annex B (informative) Relatives response team 35

Bibliography 38