ISO/IEC TS 17021-8:2019 (E)

Conformity assessment — Requirements for bodies providing audit and certification of management systems — Part 8: Competence requirements for auditing and certification of management systems for sustainable development in communities

Contents

Foreword

Introduction

1 Scope

2 Normative references

3 Terms and definitions

4 Generic competence requirements

5 Competence requirements for auditors of a management system for sustainable development in communities

- 5.1 General
- 5.2 Terminology and processes
- 5.3 Context of the organization
- 5.4 Sustainability purposes and issues
- 5.5 Leadership
- 5.6 Planning
- 5.6.1 Risks and opportunities
- 5.6.2 Baseline review
- 5.6.3 Compliance obligations
- 5.6.4 Significance of sustainability issues
- 5.6.5 Identifying and engaging interested parties
- 5.7 Sustainable development objectives
- 5.8 Performance evaluation

6 Competence requirements for personnel conducting the application review

- 6.1 General
- 6.2 Terminology
- 6.3 Context of the organization

7 Competence requirements for personnel reviewing and making certification decisions

- 7.1 General
- 7.2 Terminology and processes
- 7.3 Context of the organization
- 7.4 Sustainability purposes and issues
- 7.5 Planning

Annex A (informative) Knowledge for auditing and certification of management systems for sustainable development in communities

Page count: 7