

ISO/PAS 18999:2024-01 (E)

Healthcare organization management - Pandemic response -Guidelines for respiratory infection prevention and control in hospitals

Contents		Page
Foreword		iv
Introduction		v
1 Scope		1
2 Normative references		1
3 Terms and definitions		1
4 Separate operation of a ward dedicated to respiratory infectious diseases		2
4.1 General.....		2
4.2 Principles of isolation room assignment and operation.....		2
5 Transportation of confirmed cases and roles of the dedicated healthcare team in a ward dedicated to respiratory infectious diseases		4
5.1 Patient transportation.....		4
5.1.1 Safe patient transportation.....		4
5.1.2 Roles and composition of dedicated patient transportation team.....		4
5.1.3 Precautions for patient transportation.....		5
5.1.4 Patient transportation ^[8]		6
5.1.5 Detailed handling procedures ^[9]		6
5.2 Roles of the dedicated healthcare team in a ward dedicated to respiratory infectious diseases and management of visitors (or guests).....		7
5.2.1 Roles and composition of the dedicated healthcare team in a ward dedicated to respiratory infectious diseases.....		7
5.2.2 Management of confirmed cases and visitors (or guests) in a ward dedicated to respiratory infectious diseases.....		8
6 Cleaning, disinfection and waste management		9
6.1 Disinfection of contaminated areas (rooms and equipment).....		9
6.1.1 Precautions for disinfection ^[10]		9
6.1.2 Disinfection methods.....		9
6.1.3 Precautions after disinfection ^{[7][6]}		12
6.2 Waste collection.....		12
6.2.1 Key measures for preventing the cross-infection of waste collectors.....		12
6.2.2 Principles for medical waste disposal.....		13
6.2.3 Wearing PPE during waste disposal.....		13
6.2.4 Safe waste disposal.....		13
Annex A (informative) Facility standards for isolation rooms in a ward dedicated to respiratory infectious diseases		16
Annex B (informative) Ward facility management for preventing cross-infection		19
Annex C (informative) Terminal cleaning checklist		26
Bibliography		28